

Welcome to Estia Health Dalmeny, our aged care home located on the New South Wales south coast

Estia Health Dalmeny offers stunning ocean views and a coastal lifestyle and is located close to public transport, nearby shops and a golf course.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care including clinical, social and overall wellbeing and offer offer dementia and palliative care services, including a specific palliative care room, which can be accessed as short-term respite care or for a longer stay. The home has a Memory Support Unit with courtyards and gardens to provide a safe and supportive environment for residents requiring additional support. Our chef and his team cook nutritious meals fresh daily, based on residents' preferences.

Residents enjoy ocean views from the light-filled lounges and make the most of the home's features including a hairdressing salon and games room. There are a number of outdoor areas to enjoy, including courtyards with water features, raised garden beds and a communal alfresco dining area. Regular activities are tailored to residents' preferences and include weekly bus trips, a walking and gardening group.

Location

“I would like to thank everyone at Estia Health for the wonderful care that my parents received during their time at Dalmeny. With all the negative stories about nursing homes, I feel very blessed that my parents were given the care they received and think that it is just as important to praise good people as it is to easy to complain about poor service.”
