

Welcome to Estia Health Mudgeeraba, our aged care home located on the Gold Coast, Queensland

Estia Health Mudgeeraba is an elegant and welcoming home which sits in a pretty village at the foothills of the Gold Coast hinterland. Residents enjoy the tranquillity of a rural setting built across 6 acres surrounded by parks, gums and wildlife, with three separate parts to the home creating its own village and community feel and offering a range of options to meet people's preferences and needs.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or longer stay.

The home's large, elegant Tallai Glades building includes a Memory Support Unit offering a safe and supportive environment for residents requiring additional support. The Lodge offers a more independent, home-like space, while Tallai Gardens, offers a comfortable lifestyle with views to surrounding bushland and all offer single rooms with ensuite. Features include a hairdressing salon and expansive gardens which are regularly used by residents for the varied daily activities on offer.
