

Welcome to Estia Health Wattle Glen, our aged care home located in northeast Melbourne, Victoria

Estia Health Wattle Glen is a welcoming home offers a warm country-living environment, surrounded by bushland and in a quiet but convenient position between Wattle Glen and Hurstbridge stations, close to shops and hospitals.

The experienced clinicians, carers and hospitality teams look after all aspects of a resident's care, including clinical, social and overall wellbeing, and offer dementia and palliative care services, which can be accessed for short-term respite care or a longer stay. The home's Memory Support Unit provides a safe environment for residents requiring additional support.

The onsite chef and team prepare meals fresh daily to suit residents' preferences. Daily activities are tailored to residents' interests and hobbies and include a popular exercise program, walking groups, coffee club and visits from local kindergartens and preschools. Residents enjoy scenic country views from the spacious common areas, as well as pampering in the hairdressing salon and reading in the library. Rooms are single or companion, for couples, and either face the veranda or have views of the natural bushland surrounds.
